

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT GREENSBORO

The Department of Religious Studies and the College of Arts and Sciences presents a Public Lecture in honor of the Establishment of the Henry S. Levinson Program Endowment for Jewish Studies

Professor Peter Ochs

Edgar Bronfman Professor of Modern Judaic and Religious Studies
University of Virginia

Judaism and Christianity After the Holocaust

Thursday, March 23
217 New Music Building
7 PM

Reception to Follow in Foyer on 1st floor

Peter Ochs (Phd Yale; MA Jewish Theological Seminary) is Edgar Bronfman Professor of Modern Judaic Studies at the University of Virginia. He has been Member of the Center of Theological Inquiry in Princeton (1992-3) and Fulbright Senior Lecturer in Philosophy at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. He founded the Postmodern Jewish Philosophy Network, founded and chairs the Society for Textual Reasoning, co-founded The Society for Scriptural Reasoning and serves on the editorial boards of Modern Theology, The Journal of Jewish Thought and Philosophy, Culture and Religion, and of Crosscurrents. He is a Fellow and Editor of the Academy of Jewish Philosophy. Among his publications are eighty essays and reviews; the books, Peirce, Pragmatism and the Logic of Scripture (Cambridge U. Press, 1998), Reviewing The Covenant: Eugene Borowitz and the Postmodern Renewal of Theology (SUNY Press, 2000), Reasoning after Revelation: Dialogues in Postmodern Jewish Philosophy (with Robert Gibbs and Steven Kepnes, Westview Press, 1998), the edited collections The Return to Scripture in Judaism and Christianity (Paulist) and Understanding the Rabbinic Mind (Scholar's Press); and the co-edited collections Christianity in Jewish Terms (Westview, 2000) and Textual Reasoning (Westview, forthcoming).

Call Religious Studies Department at 334-5762 for more information. Parking available in McIver Street Parking Deck